

01//2023

JAN

1873

BATTLE OF STRONGHOLD

[150 YEARS]

UTOPIX.CC

On January 17, 1873, a mere 53 warriors from the Native American Modoc people took on a 400-strong US army detachment. Amidst a dense fog, only the natives were able to move swiftly, and using their advantageous positions they managed to drive back the invaders. No Modoc was injured.

M	T	W	T	F	S	SUN
26	27	28	29	30	31	1 1959 Cuban Revolution 1820 Riego Declaration
2 1994 Battle of Ocosingo	3 1966 Tricontinental Conference	4 1901 Birth of CLR James	5 1919 Spartacist uprising 1930 Kolkhozes in the USSR	6 1953 Asian Socialist Conference	7 ● 1907 Río Blanco strike	8 1933 Anarchist uprising in Spain
9 1964 Day of Martyrs 1973 Durban strikes	10 1933 Massacre of Casas Viejas	11	12	13	14 2021 Legalization of abortion in Argentina	15 ◐ 1919 Assassination of Rosa Luxemburg and Karl Liebknecht
16	17 1873 Battle of Stronghold 1961 Assassination of Patrice Lumumba	18 1867 Birth of Ruben Darío	19	20 1973 Assassination of Amílcar Cabral 1984 Foundation of the MST	21 ● 1891 Birth of Antonio Gramsci 1932 Peasant uprising in El Salvador	22
23 1958 Uprising in Venezuela 30 1905 National Council of Belgian Women	24 31	25 2011 Protests in Egypt	26	27 1944 End of the Leningrad siege 1945 Liberation of Auschwitz	28 ◐	29

ARTWORK ALDO CRUCES (HAVANA, CUBA) @al2cruces