

The Gold Coast, later renamed Ghana, was the first English colony in Africa to secure its independence. Led by Pan-African intellectual Kwame Nkrumah, the Convention People's Party won the 1954 legislative elections in overwhelming fashion, all but sealing the West African nation's path to independence in March 1957.

2024 JUNE

M	T	W	T	F	S	SUN
27	28	29	30	31	1 1843 Foundation of Flora Tristán's Workers' Union 1906 Cananea strike	2 1863 Combahee river raid
3	4 1930 Assassination of Sucre 1932 Chilean Socialist Republic	5 1895 Alfarista Revolution 1967 Six-day War	6 1944 D-Day	7 1942 Greek resistance against nazi occupation	8	9
10 1971 Halconazo	11	12 1882 Birth of Mohammad Mosaddegh 1963 Assassination of Medgar Evers	13 1980 Assassination of Walter Rodney	14 1894 Birth of José Carlos Mariátegui 1905 Battleship Potemkin mutiny	15	16 1959 Foundation of Prensa Latina 1976 Soweto Uprising
17	18 1954 Coup d'Etat in Guatemala	19 1953 Baton Rouge Boycott 1953 Ethel and Julius Rosenberg are executed	20	21 Mapuche New Year	22 1826 Antifictionic Congress in Panama	23
24 1821 Battle of Carabobo 1823 General Congress of Central American Provinces	25 1869 Female silk workers strike in Lyon 1975 Independence of Mozambique	26	27 1880 Birth of Helen Keller 1949 Coal strike in Australia	28 1964 Foundation of the OAAU 1969 Stonewall Revolt	29 1941 Birth of Stokely Carmichael	30 1520 Noche Triste 1960 Independence of the Congo

UTOPIX.CC

ARTWORK ÓSCAR CORASPE (CARACAS, VENEZUELA)

@oekaos